SECRET AGREEMENT DENIED

Officials Assert Rumors to Allow Armenian Sovereignty Untrue.

CONDITIONS MADE PUBLIC

Twenty-Five Points Are Set Down in Signing Truce With German Ally.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The armistice accepted by Turkey amounts to "complete unconditional surrender." This statement was made by Lord Robert Cecil, assistant secretary of state for foreign affairs, to the Associated Press tonight.

Lord Robert emphasized the statement of the foreign office to the Associated Press by saying "that no secret undertakings or engagements have been made with Turkey as far as the British government is concerned."

He added that the armistice had been signed by Great Britain on behalf of all the allies.

Discussing conditions in Germany, Lord Robert said the indications of the last day or two were that the patriots were losing their hold. He declared that no bolshevism had been reported in Germany, but that it was spreading in parts of Austria.

WEATHER REPORT.

TULSA, Nov. 1.—Maximum, 66; minimum, 34. North winds and clear weather. Monday fair, with occasional showers. Tuesday fair, with occasional showers. Wednesday fair, with occasional showers. Thursday fair, with occasional showers. Friday fair, with occasional showers. Saturday fair, with occasional showers. Sunday fair, with occasional showers.

To the German People.

The god that you worshipped has failed. Your idols have crumbled. The leaders that loudly you hailed. Have all proven false to your trust. You were blind and they led you astray. You were weak and they trampled you down.

The sword of your God is destroyed. The purple is torn from the throne. Right has broken the power for aye. And helps you are and auster. For comfort in vain you shall turn. To the books that your sages have.

You must learn from the teachers of truth. That right leads to the light. And come from the dark to the light. If you are in the laughter of men. You must follow the ways that they.

You must start in as children again. And humble yourselves before God. You have wasted the years of your past. You have builded your splendors on.

But your creeds were not written to last. Nor your temples erected to stand. From the ashes of power you must rise. To teach all your children anew. That in honor real majesty lies.

And only thus is truth to be seen. (Copyright 1918 by Edgar A. Guest.)

EIGHTY-FIVE KILLED IN BROOKLYN WRECK

Five-Car Train Jumps Track on Curve—One Is Demolished and the Others "Buckled."

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Eighty-five bodies had been taken late tonight from what is known as the Millburn street "tunnel" on the Brighton Beach line of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, where a five-car train running at high speed, jumped the track on a curve and struck the side wall with such terrific force that the first car was demolished and the others "buckled" until they were jammed against the roof of the tunnel.

The train, which carried nearly 200 passengers, was in charge of a "green" motorman.

Rescue workers declared they believed more bodies were buried under the wreckage and that the search list of men, women and children might reach 120.

District Attorney Lewis of Kings county, declared the accident was due to recklessness on the part of the motorman who had been employed as a train dispatcher and was pressed into service because of the strike which went into effect today after the company had refused to re-employ 23 discharged union employees.

"The motorman is gone," Mr. Lewis said. "The claim adjusting department appears to have kidnapped him."

An investigation of the wreck was in progress late tonight at the office of the public service commission. The Brooklyn Rapid Transit company has made no statement concerning the wreck and four hours after it occurred ignorance was professed of exactly what had happened. The crash came in a dark tunnel, and the hospital survivors.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Late tonight the government had received no news as to the reported signature of the Austro-Italian armistice.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—General Diaz, the Italian commander-in-chief, handed the armistice terms to the Austrian commander today, according to the Evening Star. The terms of the armistice, the newspaper adds, will be published tomorrow.

NEGOTIATIONS IN PROGRESS.

By The Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Negotiations between the Italian and Austro-Hungarian military commanders for an armistice are proceeding, according to advices received in London this afternoon. Fighting may already have come to an end.

AUSTRIAN NAVY GIVEN OVER TO SLAVS.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A German wireless dispatch picked up by the British navy today, says that, according to an Imperial proclamation, the Austro-Hungarian navy has been handed over to the south Slav national council sitting in Agrum.

In the decree the Austro-Hungarian authorities make an express reserve about the actual ownership of the fleet, but say until the international question is settled there is no objection to the employment of national emblems by the side of the war flag after the transfer to the council.

In the transfer of the Danube flotilla to the Hungarian government the flotilla commander is instructed to release non-Hungarian members of the crew.

AUSTRIAN SAILORS ARE IN MUTINY.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 1.—According to Hungarian reports, sailors at Pola, the great Austrian base on the Adriatic, have mutinied and seized the warships there.

A dispatch from Rome to the Paris Temps, under date of October 27, said that the Austrian fleet had hastily concentrated at Pola. A few vessels remained at Pola, the dispatch added, but all the ships which were at Cattaro had left that port.

Issue Call for Congress.

MAHON, Ind., Nov. 1.—Joshua Strause of this city, chairman of the executive committee of the Farmers National congress, has issued a preliminary call for the convening of the thirty-eighth annual session at Jackson, Miss., December 2-8. The national farm women's congress will be held at the same time and place.

Howard Not Legal Voter and Cannot Hold Seat in Congress if Elected

A vote for Howard for congress is a vote lost!

E. B. Howard cannot become a member of the United States congress.

E. B. Howard, who has made such a hullabaloo about his "home boy" of Tulsa, and whose literature says he has "always been interested in the welfare of Tulsa," is not a qualified voter.

This is not political buncombe, but the cold-blooded truth.

The records of the Tulsa county registration show that E. B. Howard registered in 1911, giving his residence at the present home of E. Constantine, where his brother Oscar lived at that time. In 1911, E. B. Howard did not live in Tulsa as he claims, but was a guest with his family, but was a guest with his family, but was a guest with his family.

The records of the Tulsa registration further show that E. B. Howard had not registered since 1911, and therefore is not a qualified voter.

Did Ed Howard stand by the democrats of Tulsa county when they needed him? No. He did not—

Will he stand by them next Tuesday, when the president of the United States is appealing to every patriotic citizen to stand by him? No. He will not—because he is not registered, according to the Tulsa county registration books closed last Saturday, inspected Monday, and inspected again last Saturday.

Will he stand by them next Tuesday, when the president of the United States is appealing to every patriotic citizen to stand by him? No. He will not—because he is not registered, according to the Tulsa county registration books closed last Saturday, inspected Monday, and inspected again last Saturday.

As stated above, Mr. Howard is not a qualified voter. That prevents him from holding office. Not only that, but the 1914 laws of the state of Oklahoma provide that when a man fails to vote in three consecutive elections, he loses his right of franchise—loses his right to vote for all time.

A man who is not a voter, a man who is not a taxpayer, a man who does not live in this district—that is the class of man who is presuming on the people of this congressional district to send him to congress, to "redeem the first district to the democratic party" and to "stand by the president."

Did he "stand by the president" two years ago? No, he did not—

AIR PROSECUTION STARTS AT ONCE

Department of Justice Announces Proceedings To Be Instigated at Once.

INVESTIGATION CONTINUES

Spruce Probe, Recommended by Hughes, To Be Made; Contemplate Others.

BAKER MAY ACT ON DEEDS

Secretary to Study Findings Before Instituting Court-Martial Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Prosecution of the three army officers held by Charles E. Hughes in his report on the aircraft investigation to be held by the department of justice, is to be started without delay. It was said today at the department of justice. The cases may be laid before a federal jury in Washington.

The officers are Lieutenant Colonel J. R. Vincent, former vice president of the Packard Motor Car company, Lieutenant Colonel George W. Mixer, a stockholder in the Curtiss Airplane and Motor corporation, and Lieutenant Colonel B. Vrooman, Jr., a stockholder in the S. B. Vrooman company of Philadelphia. If substantiated the charges made against the officers would involve imprisonment of not more than two years and fine of not more than $2,000.

Reports that other army officers conspired since the nation entered the war have been dealing with firms in which they have a financial interest are being investigated by agents of the department of justice. It was understood that the number of officers under investigation was small.

Secretary Baker said today that he had not yet completed his study of Mr. Hughes' report and, therefore, was not prepared to announce his action upon the recommendations of Mr. Hughes' report and, therefore, attached to the bureau of military investigations, he brought a court-martial for the alleged supplying of confidential war department information to former business associates in Dayton, Ohio.

Further investigation into conditions in the spruce producing section of the northwest was recommended by Mr. Hughes, it is to be undertaken by government agents, it was said today.

STATE STILL HOLDS TO FLU QUARANTINE

In spite of Fact Discussion Follows Meeting This Morning, Dr. Duke Says Another Week.

131 NEW CASES REPORTED

Investigation Committee Statistics Not Encouraging—Theaters Announce to Throw Doors Open.

Only One Victim.

Francis Montague, 9 months, 600 North Tropic.

"When all danger is past, the quarantine of Tulsa will be lifted by the state board of health," Dr. C. L. Reeder, county superintendent of health, said over the telephone last night. "Not until the situation is clear and conditions are improved than now, will the state remove the ban."

Dr. Reeder had figures before him from the survey of the city made by the school teachers under the direction of the investigation committee, showing that for the 48 hours preceding the survey 131 new cases had been reported.

The statistics gathered by the committee showed 288 cases released, as compared to 599 released for the 48 hours up to Wednesday evening.

A meeting will be held today to determine what policy to adopt in regard to the ban. Theaters are anxious to open. The movies have films on hand that can be put on the screen tonight, and the afternoon and Hill Street can get its acts for the Empire for the Sunday matinee, providing the officials figure the ban can be lifted.

The theaters were all fumigated last night and so far as the managers are concerned they are ready for the epidemic to officially end. They will be at the meeting this morning at the council of defense, and will show that other public gatherings have been held from time to time and that with the fumigating of the theaters, the flu should be no more terrifying and more dangerous than any other disease.

Dr. J. W. Duke of the state board of health, who is down with influenza at Oklahoma City, told persons visiting in Tulsa yesterday that he hoped to have the quarantine lifted by next Monday.

The city officials and the council of defense will meet today with physicians and the health department and the matter will be discussed from every angle and some recommendation made to the state board of health looking forward to lifting the ban.

Kansas opened up Thursday and other states have been held from three to time and that with the fumigating of the theaters, the flu should be no more terrifying and more dangerous than any other disease.

Austrian Rout Continues Unchecked; Allies Advance in France and Belgium

Pershing's Boys Sweep Dozen Towns in Attack West of Meuse; Join With French in Aisne Offensive.

FIVE-MILE RUSH MADE IN FLANDERS

Belgians Push on; Haig Takes 3,000; French and Serbs Reach Belgrade; Austrians Overwhelmed on Italian Front.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Nov. 1.—General Pershing's forces attacked the German position on this front today. At least a dozen villages were captured. More than 3,000 prisoners were taken.

Soon after noon the American troops had passed Imecourt and Bayonville. The Americans stormed Andevanne and cleared the Bois des Loges where they encountered the most serious opposition of the day.

The line at 6 o'clock this evening extended through the northern part of the Bois des Loges to the eastward and then well north of Aincreville and Clerly-le-Grand.

Most of the villages captured had been fortified by the Germans.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Today's attack in Flanders was rewarded by an advance of more than five miles on a ten-mile front. It brought the allies to the Scheldt from Berchem to Caver, ten miles south of Ghent. This advance probably will enable the Belgians to push the enemy over the Derivation canal to the Terneuse canal.

South of Valenciennes the attack resulted in an advance of two miles on a four-mile front and the capture of Aulnoy and Preseau, thus reaching the southern edge of Valenciennes, which is flooded.

The French and Americans on the southern part of the battle line, attacking through Attigny, have advanced between three and four miles and are nearing Buzancy.

the extreme sector of the front Italian marines have occupied Caorle.

From the St. Elvio to the Astico, the Austrians are strongly resisting the dispatch said, but they are wearying beyond the Amago plateau and are in utter rout all along the rest of the front.

The greatest defense that the enemy has is the natural obstacles along the road of its retreat, adds the dispatch. "Our troops are full of enthusiasm and are following the enemy relentlessly. The Italian artillery has been rapidly brought into action and all the captured enemy artillery being used to hamper the retreat."

"The value of the captured booty can already be calculated in the billions."

BRITISH CAPTURE 3,000 GERMAN.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Attacking on a front of six miles south of Valenciennes this morning English and Canadian troops captured between two and three thousand prisoners and inflicted extremely heavy losses on the enemy.

This announcement is made in the official report from Field Marshal Haig tonight.

FRENCH AND SERBS GET TO BELGRADE.

SALONIKI, Nov. 1.—French and Serbian cavalry have reached the outer defenses of Belgrade, capital of Serbia, says a French official communication issued this evening. The French and Serbian forces are approaching Semendria, about 20 miles southeast of Belgrade. Serbian troops have occupied Projeva.

FRENCH AND YANKS ATTACK ON AISNE.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—The fourth French army in conjunction with the Americans on their right launched an attack this morning on the Aisne front, on the south of Vouziers, according to the official statement issued by the war office tonight. The attack was on a front of about 14 1/2 miles from the region of Attigny to north of Olizy.

Versailles Council Agrees on Armistice For German Sea Power

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Versailles conference finally agreed late yesterday on the armistice terms governing the maritime power of the central empires. The proposals contain six points which are believed to throw every safeguard around the German fleet.

Entire Crew Is Lost.

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—The entire crew of 50 men of the Dominion naval patrol steamer Galliano was lost when the vessel foundered in storm off Charlotte island, B. C., October 30, it was announced here today by the naval service department.

OPPOSED INCREASE PAY FOR SOLDIERS

Congressman Scott Ferris Said Money For Boys In Draft Act Was No Consequence.

WOULDN'T ALLOW THEM $30

This Same Man Is Advancing Everybody How to Vote in Coming Election.

Scott Ferris, with his usual egotism, is presuming to tell the people of the First district of Oklahoma and of other districts of the United States that no one except a democrat should be elected to congress this fall. He has challenged the patriotism of every republican.

It is a well known fact that Mr. Ferris was against the draft act until he was forced by public sentiment to be for the draft act. Mr. Ferris has been a member of congress in the past session, and has had an opportunity to vote on the war measures. Up until the beginning of this month the soldiers received $13 a month. When the draft act was framed by the house of representatives it provided not only for drafting the boys but also for raising the monthly salary of a private to $30 a month. The senate (the democratic senate) reduced this amount to $23 a month and the bill came out of conference and back to the house recommended by Chairman Dent,
